

An update from Red Poles....

Spring is here and after a very cold and wet winter the warmer weather is very welcome in McLaren Vale - the lawns are very green, the food is fantastic and the lawns and gardens have Spring bulbs and flowers bursting forth to make outdoor seating more inviting as well as the heated verandahs! The outdoor fire pit where you warm the very cockles of your heart – has created warmth and ambience and is still the perfect place on a cooler day to enjoy a glass of one of our fine McLaren Vale reds or a few enticing cocktails. The heated courtyard is home for some wine tasting with Brick Kiln Wines at their cellar door or try the Vale Brewing tasting paddles of 4 of their award winning craft beers including their latest Fox Hat range.

If you haven't booked your Xmas functions yet – don't worry it's not too late! Red Poles does special group menus and we'll open in the evening for groups of more than 30 people. We do breakfast Wednesday to Sunday too so that's another option for family, friends and workmates.

The art gallery currently features the exhibition "Hunters and Gatherers" and showcases a very talented family! There are textiles by sisters Wendy Redden and Denise Lithgow, paintings by Peter Griffen and photography by David Griffen. This is an extraordinary exhibition and well worth a visit to enjoy!

Then on Saturday December 10th Red Poles launches its Xmas exhibition to celebrate the festive season. Titled "All I Want for Xmas..." it is a group mixed media exhibition responding to the poem "The Twelve Days of Christmas" and all works will be priced under $800 so perfect for Xmas gifts!!!! Or maybe just spoil yourself!.

Red Poles is open Wednesday to Sunday from 9 to 5 but please remember to book to ensure we can provide you with a table. Head chef Dave Cilento and his team have produced menus representing the best flavours of local produce from the Fleurieu region. Don't forget there is live music every Sunday afternoon from 12.30 to 3.30pm. Bookings are essential on 8323 8994 or call Ros on 0417 814 695.

Plenty of opportunities to explore all of the experiences to be found at Red Poles – discover why we love our space so much!

Need more time to explore it all – then stay in one of our three B&B rooms and enjoy the ambience overnight or a longer stay! We'll help you discover not only Red Poles but McLaren Vale and the broader Fleurieu region.

See you soon for the very best of food, wine, art and ale!
